Study Abroad in Munich, Spring 2017

Students may design their own program of study with a combination of LMU Munich courses, JYM language and area studies courses, and even an undergraduate research project.

The JYM Second Semester program begins with an On-Site Orientation program, followed by enrollment at LMU Munich for the Sommersemester (SoSe).

Apr 5, 2017: Orientation begins
Apr 24 – Jul 30, 2017: Second semester classes

Eligibility:
- 2 years college German or equivalent level
- overall 3.0 GPA
- junior standing

Application Deadline Oct. 1, 2016

Only $10,300 includes tuition, housing & insurance

Contact Information:
Louise Speed
Assistant to the Director
Tel. (313) 577-4605
JYM@wayne.edu

JYM Advising Essentials:
visit "Advisors & Faculty" on the JYM website
www.jym.wayne.edu

Quick Facts:
- one-semester and full-year programs
- open to all majors with 2 years college German
- 65 students from 35 colleges and universities annually
- enrollment at Ludwig Maximilians Universität München
- students take 100+ courses at LMU Munich annually
- internships in a wide range of fields
- research projects in the sciences and humanities
- most affordable of comparable programs
- all in German!

JYM - a distinguished tradition since 1953
JYM enjoys privileged status as an affiliated academic institute at LMU Munich approved by the LMU Munich Academic Senate, and is an official course of study (Teil-Studienplan) approved by the Bavarian State Ministry of Culture. Hence our name, the "Junior Year in Munich an der Universität München."

www.jym.wayne.edu